ENFORCEMENT BUREAU'S SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL STATUS REPORT

1. Pursuant to Order, FCC 16M-37,¹ the Enforcement Bureau (Bureau) has previously submitted Status Reports providing significant information concerning its proposed witness, Tammy Gremminger.² At the Status Conference held on February 16, 2017, the Bureau agreed to provide additional information from Ms. Gremminger, if possible, in response to objections raised by counsel for Lake Broadcasting Inc. (Lake). This agreement is reflected in the Presiding Judge's Order, FCC 17M-05.³ Accordingly, the Acting Chief, Enforcement Bureau, respectfully submits this second supplemental status report.

² See Enforcement Bureau's Status Report, filed on February 3, 2017; Enforcement Bureau's Supplemental Status report filed on February 15, 2017 (Supplemental Status Report).

³ See Order, FCC 17M-05 (ALJ, rel. Feb. 16, 2017).

2. In response to the Bureau's inquiries, Ms. Gremminger provided the following additional information concerning the cases in which she has testified about sex offender risk assessment as a part of her responsibilities as a Parole Officer in the Missouri Department of Corrections.⁴

3. Ms. Gremminger also provided additional information about the type of testimony she has provided within the past four years concerning the offender's risk to remain in the community and her recommendations that they be sentenced to the Missouri Department of Corrections or that the Court amend the conditions of their supervision for public safety. As she explained, her testimony typically includes the following information:

- risk factors that lead to the offender's current situation (Court hearing) and their amenability to treatment and supervision;
- risk factors that were present during the time of the offenders offending behavior;
- sexual offense(s) that have occurred;
- sexual interest/arousal pattern and risk assessment(s);
- denial of harm, responsibility, frequency, intrusiveness, denial of need of services, denial of fantasies, grooming and planning;
- justification for the offender's actions, shifting the blame, or taking a victims stance (blaming the victim of the crime);
- use of force, drugs or intoxicating substances;
- means by which offenders gained access to their victim(s), to include if they were in a position of authority;
- defendant's version of the offense and official police report;
- progress or lack of progress in sex offender treatment;
- supervision strategies utilized (such as sex offender treatment, GPS, computer monitoring, polygraph examinations, directives, and or additional programs) and the outcome of these strategies utilized and the information obtained;
- support system, or lack of support system, socialization;
- deviant behavior(s), sexual interests, masturbation, thoughts, fantasies, sexual arousal, physical sexual behaviors, and relationships;
- offender's desire to change; and
- risk to re-offend.

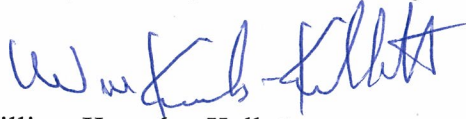

4. With regard to the training Ms. Gremminger has undergone related to her job responsibilities and duties, she further clarified that she does not have access to any of the completion certificates. She confirmed that for any training that was conducted outside the Missouri Department of Corrections (such as by local police departments, the prosecutor's office or the Federal Bureau of Investigations) she does not have a record of their location or of the instructors/speakers.

Respectfully submitted,
